Burd's 31 Nights of Horror

October is an interesting month. As the weather changes and leaves begin to fall, people feel a sense of new beginnings and excitement fills the air. For our Pub Brewer, Christian Burd, this autumnal energy manifests itself in the self-imposed 31 Nights of Horror. For every night of October, Christian will be watching a horror movie and live tweeting it from the Burnt City account. Here is the complete list and all you fright aficionados can follow along on Twitter here. So spooky!

While we're here, big shout out to our friends at Alarmist for their GABF Gold Metal in the Juicy or Hazy India Pale Ale category!
